

RAMESH PARMAR

COMMITTEE MEMBER

Ramesh is a Finance, Treasury and Change professional with over 25 years' experience within Financial Services, Banking and Capital Markets. He has led Finance functions, delivering complex transformational change and creating high performing teams that are inclusive and diverse in thought and perspective previously at TSB, HSBC and Lloyds Banking Group. Ramesh has also developed a strong interest in how technology can make a difference to serve society through numerous sectors such as FinTech, HealthTech, LifeSciences and the Not-for-Profit Charity sector where he serves as a Trustee / NED. Ramesh has been a Cornhill Club committee member for 4 years and has played a key role in supporting changes in the club strategy, continuity and format.

He is an avid fitness enthusiast, participates in a number of sports, and has a keen interest in overseas travel where he enjoys exploring different cultures.

APPOINTED

Ramesh believes that "Encouraging the discovery of one's purpose(s) is the key to meaningful innovation and customer impact."