

DAVID ROYLE

COMMITTEE MEMBER

David is a partner at Be | Shaping the Future management consultancy where he leads the retail and commercial banking team. He specialises in business transformation and data analytics. He was previously a partner at Grant Thornton, where he headed up the Financial Services Business Consulting practice and founded a FinTech startup in 2014.

David joined The Cornhill Club in 2017 and is the chair elect for the coming season - subject to ratification at the AGM in April.

Outside of work David is an HGV driver and assistant groom supporting his families' extreme equestrian habit.

APPOINTED

David believes that "the Cornhill Club is the preeminent financial services networking club, and has the reach and influence to make a real difference to financial services. The dinners are pretty special too..."
