

MARIANNE BREEN HART

COMMITTEE MEMBER

Marianne is a consultant with over 18 years experience working across financial services and government organisations. She has commercial and operational management experience in a technology setting and has held several chief of staff positions.

Marianne is passionate about promoting inclusion and diversity in the workplace and has taken a lead role in promoting ways to enhance social mobility during her career to date. Marianne has most recently held the position of chief operating officer in an organisation promoting financial inclusion across the UK.

Marianne enjoys travelling, spending time with her young family, and running.

APPOINTED

Marianne believes that "it is important to support individuals in different ways and celebrate the unique qualities and experience each person brings. She is keen to promote the inclusive network the Cornhill club represents.."